Certificates of Completion

The American Board grants the Certificate of Competion in all its specializations relevantly to the requirements. The certificate is recognized globally by the United States of America, Washington, DC., and is eligible for any country's authentication.

Accreditation Certificates & IDs

The American Board grants the accreditation of practicing professions, along with the ID, as the candidate proves his entitlement to it. This proves the identity holder is an accredited professional and allows him to practice his profession of specialization all over the world as it also opens the door for him to be recommended by the board for work opportunities.

Professional Degrees

While traditional academic degrees involve a wide array of courses and require considerable time and financial commitment, the American Board provides specialized professional programs and degrees. These programs focus solely on essential topics specific to each field, eliminating unnecessary electives, making them both cost-effective and time-efficient. Our offerings include professional diplomas, bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees, with a strong emphasis on business management, psychology, and mental health disciplines.
